

Wakefield's Cagers Drill Against JV's

Continued practice against the junior varsity team and intra-squad practices, are aiding the Wakefield Warriors in preparing for the coming cage season which opens early in December.

Coach Robbie Robinson has the varsity cut to 13 players, and will have approximately 15 reserves to choose from in the Jayvee ranks under coach Maynard Haithcock.

In their lone "outside" engagement to date, the Warriors showed they need much more contact work, but coach Robinson is under the impression that the boys will pick up fast once the season begins. He has some good material, but Wakefield is only in its second year on the hard woods, and whipping a green team into shape takes more than one season. With most of last years squad back, Robinson is confident his team will be a smoother operating club, but warns the following that the 1954-55 schedule will be a much tougher one than last season's, in which the Warriors finished with a 12-6 record.

Watch for such names as Don Richards, Bill Gordon, John Gibson, Butch Varden, Henry Mayo, Don Baldwin, Frank Stevens, Steve Holderness, Bill Hunter and Al Led-erle to strive for another winning season, which opens December 10th against the George Washington Jayvees at the Wakefield gym at 3:30 p.m., following the Warrior junior varsity match with the Prexes Frosh, beginning at 7:00 p.m.
